

Anne Stausboll

Interim Chief Investment Officer

Anne Stausboll was named the Interim Chief Investment Officer for the California Public Employees' Retirement System (CalPERS) in April 2008. In her position, she has full delegated authority for the investment of the assets. She was previously the pension fund's Chief Operating Investment Officer, where she was responsible for the administrative and operational management of the Investment Office. She is also responsible for overseeing Investment Office Policy and Legislative matters.

In addition, she oversees the CalPERS Supplemental Income Plans, including the 457 Program for local agencies.

Before coming to CalPERS, Ms. Stausboll was Chief Deputy Treasurer to California State Treasurer Phil Angelides, beginning in July 2000. As Chief Deputy, she directed the policies, programs, and operations of the State Treasurer's Office. She also led a team on national corporate reform for the Treasurer's Office, which is responsible for the public investment and cash management functions of the State of California.

Prior to serving in the State Treasurer's Office, Ms. Stausboll worked for six years in the CalPERS Legal Office, including two years as Deputy General Counsel.

Ms. Stausboll received her Bachelor of Arts degree in English from Oberlin College and her Juris Doctor degree (Order of the Coif) from the University of California, Davis School of Law.

Ms. Stausboll serves on the Ceres Board, as well as the governing board for the United Nations Principles for Responsible Investment. She is also on the Toigo Foundation Advisory Board. In addition, Ms. Stausboll has been named one of the Top 25 Nonbank Women in Finance, part of U.S. Banker's 25 Most Powerful Women in Banking for both 2007 and 2008.

10/2/08